RELEVANCE OF SPORT

Sport is beneficial to both health and social relationships, but its economic significance is growing. A 2012 study calculated that the direct effects of sport, combined with its multiplier effects, added up to 3% (294.36 billions of euros) of overall gross value added in the EU.

Sport, in its different forms, is identified as driver for economic growth and it is embedded with sectors such as tourism, health and transport. For the EU as a whole, total employment generated by sport activities is 7.3 millions of euros, equivalent to 3.5% of total EU employment.

As a relatively new sector, sport is generally regarded as being an early adopter of new ideas and innovations. Sport can help specific business sectors to develop, depending on the characteristics of sport demand and supply in a specific country.

FUNDRAISING – CONCEPT NOTES

Updated January 2021

CONCEPT NOTES

IMPORTANT
EPSI Members' List of Concept Notes have been revised to allow a more efficient follow-up on the submitted proposals. To this purpose, concept notes have been regrouped into different subordinated categories:

- Programs: A program is a broad theme around which one or more project proposals / business, research, social ideas can be created. Regular "brochure tables" will be organized between the concept note leader/coordinator, other EPSI members and the EPSI Strategic Consultant(s) to develop a series of concrete project ideas and/or business/research/social outcomes.
 - Project is one precise and tangible way to ensure a concrete development of any program, concept or project.
 - Project is one precise and tangible way to ensure a concrete development of any program, concept or project.
 - Project is one precise and tangible way to ensure a concrete development of any program, concept or project.
 - Project is one precise and tangible way to ensure a concrete development of any program, concept or project.
- Such project proposal will finally be submitted as a local, national, regional or international project.
 - Business/Research/Social Ideas: Is a second well-defined tangible way to "advance" on any program, in this second scenario and depending on the nature of EPSI members (i.e. academic, public authority, private for profit or non-profit, undertakings, the objective will be to deliver business, researches (more for academic), social (more for public authorities) cases which, funded by the EPSI ecosystem, and following some well-defined procedural steps, will result in a concrete road map for the realization of such idea.

The hereunder Concept notes will equally be defined according to their level of activities:

- PASSIVE CONCEPT NOTES: GREEN hereunder are the ones that are "dormant" meaning that:
 - have not yet identified a clear coordinator / project leader
 - have not yet identified a funding coverage tables
 - have not yet clearly identified who they supposed to deliver
 - passive concept notes will remain in this list so that any interested members can propose to become a group leader; an advance further these passive concept notes.
- ACTIVE CONCEPT NOTES: RED hereunder are on the contrary the ones that
 - have a group leader steering the activities
 - have resulted in follow up Brokerage tables
 - have started a process to identify a clear outcome to deliver.
